

This letter concerns nexus for collection of Illinois Use Tax 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.201(i) and 150.801. (This is a GIL).

July 12, 2004

Dear Xxxxx:

This letter is in response to your letter dated February 23, 2004, in which you request information. The Department issues two types of letter rulings. Private Letter Rulings ("PLRs") are issued by the Department in response to specific taxpayer inquiries concerning the application of a tax statute or rule to a particular fact situation. A PLR is binding on the Department, but only as to the taxpayer who is the subject of the request for ruling and only to the extent the facts recited in the PLR are correct and complete. Persons seeking PLRs must comply with the procedures for PLRs found in the Department's regulations at 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.110. The purpose of a General Information Letter ("GIL") is to direct taxpayers to Department regulations or other sources of information regarding the topic about which they have inquired. A GIL is not a statement of Department policy and is not binding on the Department. See 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.120. You may access our website at www.ILTAX.com to review regulations, letter rulings and other types of information relevant to your inquiry.

The nature of your inquiry and the information you have provided require that we respond with a GIL. In your letter you have stated and made inquiry as follows:

This letter is regarding a client of ours that sells merchandise to customers in the state of Illinois. The company, although it has obtained an Illinois IBT No., is a New York corporation and all sales to Illinois are shipped from their New York location to Illinois via a common carrier such as UPS. In a phone conversation I had with the Illinois Sales Tax office I was told that in the above scenario the NY corporation would not be responsible for collecting any sales tax for these Illinois sales. Please confirm that this is indeed the case.

DEPARTMENT'S RESPONSE:

Determinations regarding the subject of nexus are normally very fact specific. The Department has found that the best manner to determine nexus is for a Department auditor to examine all relevant facts and information. The following guidelines, however, may be useful to you in determining whether your corporation would be considered "a retailer maintaining a place of business in Illinois" subject to Use Tax collection obligations.

Whether a retailer is subject to Illinois Retailers' Occupation Tax (sales tax) liability or is required to collect Illinois Use Tax from its Illinois customers depends upon whether that retailer has sufficient "nexus" with the State of Illinois so that the retailer will be subject to Illinois law. The following information outlines the principles of nexus.

An "Illinois Retailer" is one who either accepts purchase orders in the State of Illinois or maintains an inventory in Illinois and fills Illinois orders from that inventory. The Illinois Retailer is then liable for Retailers' Occupation Tax on gross receipts from sales and must collect the corresponding Use Tax incurred by the purchasers.

Another type of retailer is the out-of-State Retailer maintaining a place of business in Illinois. The definition of a "retailer maintaining a place of business in Illinois" is described in 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.201(i). This type of retailer is required to register with the State as an Illinois Use Tax collector. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.801. The retailer must collect and remit Use Tax to the State on behalf of the retailer's Illinois customers even though the retailer does not incur any Retailers' Occupation Tax liability.

The United States Supreme Court in Quill Corp. v. North Dakota, 112 S.Ct. 1904 (1992), set forth the current guidelines for determining what nexus requirements must be met before a person is properly subject to a state's tax law. The Supreme Court has set out a two prong test for nexus. The first prong is whether the Due Process Clause is satisfied. Due process will be satisfied if the person or entity purposely avails itself or himself of the benefits of an economic market in a forum state. Quill at 1910.

The second prong of the Supreme Court's nexus test requires that, if due process requirements have been satisfied, the person or entity must have physical presence in the forum state to satisfy the Commerce Clause. A physical presence is not limited to an office or other physical building. Under Illinois law, it also includes the presence of any agent or representative of the seller. The representative need not be a sales representative. Any type of physical presence in the State of Illinois, including the vendor's delivery and installation of his product on a repetitive basis will trigger Use Tax collection responsibilities. See Brown's Furniture, Inc. v. Zehnder, 171 Ill.2d 410 (1996).

The final type of retailer is the out-of-State retailer that does not have sufficient nexus with Illinois to be required to submit to Illinois tax laws. A retailer in this situation does not incur Retailers' Occupation Tax on sales into Illinois and is not required to collect Use Tax on behalf of its Illinois customers. However, the retailer's Illinois customers will still incur Use Tax on the purchase of the out-of-State goods and have a duty to self-assess their Use Tax liability and the customer must remit the amount directly to the State. The Use Tax rate is 6.25%.

The Department notes that your letter states that the client is registered with Illinois for sales tax purposes. So long as that is the case, it should continue to collect and remit Illinois tax on transactions where it makes deliveries to Illinois customers.

I hope this information is helpful. If you require additional information, please visit our website at www.ILTAX.com or contact the Department's Taxpayer Information Division at (217) 782-3336. If you are not under audit and you wish to obtain a binding PLR regarding your factual situation, please submit a request conforming to the requirements of 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.110 (b).

Very truly yours,

Edwin E. Boggess
Associate Counsel
